PENNINGTON BAKERY FUTURE UNCERTAIN

NO LEFT TURN SIGN (circled) made its first appearance in a long, long time at the corner of Court and Fayette streets here last Friday night during the heavy evening shopping traffic. The sign is intended to facilitate flow of traffic during the "busy hours." It will be up there regularly Friday and Saturday afternoons and evenings, according to City Manager James F. Parkinson. Parkinson said Monday that people were apparently "very well pleased" with it, and that it seems to be accomplishing its purpose. (Record-Herald photo)

Hospital Bulletin Reports President's Condition 'Excellent'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's aides said today that the Chief Executive has "resumed his job"—less than three days after undergoing major surgery.

This morning, the President took another little walk — this time on his own initiative. Walter Reed Hospital's latest bulletin said that "the President's condition remains excellent."

The bulletin reported that their distinguished patient's pulse, blood pressure, temperature and respiration are "essentially normal." It added:

"He walked with but little support from his bed to an easy chair which was placed 20 feet from the bed.

"He sat in the chair for 15 minutes and then walked, again with little support, back to bed.

"During these exercises the President had less discomfort than yesterday."

Yesterday, only 30 hours after his emergency surgery of early Saturday morning, the President walked a total of about 30 feet with attendants partly supporting him.

Today the only assistance he had was a hand on the elbow.

LATER, Eisenhower conferred for 10 minutes with his chief assistant, Sherman Adams, and reached several decisions including the designation of Vice President Nixon to represent him at two forthcoming events—the regular National Security Council meeting Thursday and a luncheon Wednesday for West German Chancellor Adenauer.

Eisenhower also rejected a Russian bid for all members of the U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff to visit the Soviet Union.

Eisenhower left the way open for some of the Joint Chiefs to go to Russia later on condition they were given plenty of time outside Moscow to look at "activities of special interest to their own services."

The Soviet move was the outgrowth of an invitation, which has been accepted, for Gen. Nathan Twining, Air Force chief of staff, to attend the Soviet Union's aviation celebration June 24.

Twining plans to spend eight days in Russia.

Adams met with the President after conferring with a nearby lounge with other staff members including James Hagerty, White House press secretary.

Asked if it would be correct to say Eisenhower now has "resumed his job," Hagerty said:

"I would think so."

The medical bulletin said antibiotics still are being administered to the President and that he is still being fed through the veins.

A TEMPORARY White House staff headquarters was established at the hospital. Presidential aides came in with supplies of tablets, memo pads, pencils and other paraphernalia for conference use.

The surgeon who performed the operation, Maj. Gen. Leonard D. Heaton, said there is no medical reason for Eisenhower to abandon his second-term decision. Heaton is the Walter Reed commandant.

Heaton made these points:

1. Physicians attending the President "look for a rapid and complete recovery" with discharge from the hospital about June 24.

2. Eisenhower "should be able to return to full duties at the White House" in four to six weeks. Meanwhile, convalescence after leaving the hospital will be at a place of Eisenhower's choosing, possibly his farm at Gettysburg.

3. THE PRESIDENT's new illness had "no relationship" to the heart attack he suffered last Sept. 24, and "we do not expect his rate is nearly $20 a pint.

C of C Gets 57 New Members

Fifty-seven new members were added to the Chamber of Commerce during the three-day member sign-up campaign last week.

The campaign was conducted by four teams of five men each:

Jaycees made up of Bob Boyd, the captain, Mike Harrison, Jim Schwartz, Dick Willis and Dr. William Lawyer; Industrialists—Joe Peters, captain, Paul Rodenfels, Clarence Cooper, Walter Rettig and Bill Williams.

Board of Directors—Tom Mark, captain, John Breiner, Dustin Gorton, Harris Willis and George Finley.

Retail Merchants—Jack Davis, captain, Dick Patton, Verne Evans, Ralph Cook and Jim Evans.

The Jaycees and the Industrialists tied for top honors with 19 new members each. The Retail Merchants got 11 and the Board of Directors got six.

In a loss of a coin, the Industrialists won the honors and were the guests for dinner at Anderson's Drive-in Restaurant at the expense of the others. The Industrialists each were rewarded with a desk set.

Dick Willis the high individual in the campaign with 10, also was rewarded with a desk set; so were the top men on each of the other two teams—Ralph Cook with four and Mark with two.

Bill Stoughton, the Chamber manager, and Wayne Bower, the campaign chairman, said of the campaign: "It was far better than we had hoped for."

Stoughton added that since the campaign had not been able to contact all of their prospects, the campaign would continue for at least another week. He expressed the hope, with confidence, that the total would reach 70 new members.

Bower and Stoughton said the best thing about the campaign was the enthusiasm.

At the start of the campaign, there were 323 members of the Chamber of Commerce. Stoughton said he expected most of these to renew their memberships when they expire at the end of this month.

House Cuts Foreign Aid Spending To $3.8 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House today passed and sent to the Senate a $3.8 billion foreign aid bill slashed more than $1 billion below President Eisenhower's request.

The formal rollcall vote confirmed House opposition this election year to an overseas aid program as large as the $4.9 billion Eisenhower said was needed for American and free world security. The final vote for passage was 273-122.

The legislation was reported headed for further trouble in the Senate, where some key senators have said it would be cut even further. It is still $1.1 billion below the appropriation Congress voted last year.

Its emphasis was on aid to parts of the world other than Europe, and on the use of loans and private enterprise wherever possible instead of outright gifts.

The bill would give the President a high degree of flexibility in administering the program, and would leave it up to him to decide in the national interest whether U. S. aid should be continued to Communist Yugoslavia. There had been a move to shut off all such aid.

THE BILL SETS the general terms for the aid program for next fiscal year. The actual appropriations must be voted in a separate measure later.

The New York Times says it believes a "new negative force" is rising in Congress regarding foreign aid. The Times says this is not so much of a new isolationism as it is of a skepticism.

The Times believes that this force is contending not against foreign aid as a continuing concept but against Eisenhower's effort to expand that program in an election year.

Bloodmobile To Come Here On Thursday

Five-Month Report Shows More Blood Used Than Given

The Blood Bank will be at the First Christian Church here Thursday, June 14, from 10 A. M. to 3:45 P. M.

On its regularly scheduled visit to Fayette County, the bloodmobile Blood Bank will be here then to collect blood donations for use here in Fayette County.

Quota for this month is 150 pints. Every effort is being made to put the total donation over the top.

Recruiting of donors this time is being carried on by members of the 4-H Junior Leaders organization, under the direction of Gene Gustin, the president. Prospective donors not contacted by a Junior Leader may call one in their neighborhood or Mrs. Leonard Korn, executive secretary of the Red Cross Chapter here.

Announcement of the bloodmobile's coming was made by the Red Cross in connection with the report for May. The report summarized Red Cross activities here for the last month and for the first five months of the year.

A total of 51 pints of blood was used by Fayette County Memorial Hospital for transfusions during the month, the report said. During the year, it stated, 354 pints have been used and 355 donated—which indicates that the hospital never has a satisfactory reserve supply on hand, and that an overfulfilled quota during the present campaign would be a great assistance.

MRS. KORN pointed out, significantly, that the count on the blood used took into consideration only that which was used at the hospital here and did not include that which was used by Fayette County in other hospitals.

Fayette Countians, she noted, are entitled to Red Cross blood (Please Turn to Page Ten)

CHICAGO (AP) — Unseasonably warm weather covered most of the nation today.

High temperature readings were reported from the Rocky Mountains across the Mississippi River Valley into the middle and south Atlantic states.

County Is Proposed As Ideal Location For Animal Disease Lab

Fayette County has been advanced as an ideal site for a new Animal Disease Laboratory planned by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

In a letter to Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson, Sixth District Congressman James G. Polk said: "It is my respectful suggestion that consideration be given to locating this new laboratory in the state of Ohio, particularly in Fayette County near the city of Washington Court House. This location would seem to meet all the requirements for such a facility, and I strongly urge and recommend its consideration by the site committee."

Originally it was proposed by the department that a new facility for work on animal diseases be located at the Agricultural Research Center in Beltsville, Md., and $18,915,000 was included in appropriation requests for construction purposes. Congress, in considering the request, generally favored the new facilities but at allocation other than Beltsville.

The suggestion was made that the Department of Agriculture, in cooperation with the livestock industry and allied interests, select a site close to centers of livestock production, near or in conjunction with one of the state land grant colleges having a strong veterinary medical program and away from concentrated metropolitan centers. Benson then invited submission of site proposals and set up procedures to consider them. The site committee will meet in St. Louis beginning June 27.

FAYETTE COUNTY Agent W. W. Montgomery, agreeing that this area would be a perfect site for such a laboratory facility, pointed out that the county meets all major conditions stipulated by the Department of Agriculture, including proximity to Ohio State University and its College of Veterinary Medicine.

Other factors to be considered by the site committee include:

Human population — near a community that could readily absorb 100 to 200 new families and having adequate personnel to fill up to 100 non-scientific positions;

Accessibility — near major railroad and airline connections on a site adjacent to hard-surfaced roads;

Land — from 200 to 400 acres would be needed;

Adequate water, sewage and electrical facilities;

Availability of 1,000 (each) locally produced cattle, swine and sheep per year.

AFTER HEARING all proposals at St. Louis, the site committee will choose from three to five locations for further on-the-ground consideration.

Artist And Bride Start Long Voyage

NYACK, N. Y. (AP) — A Greek artist and his blonde American bride set sail yesterday in a 28-foot boat on a 5,000-mile honeymoon voyage to Athens, Greece.

Savas Georgiu, 37, and his bride, the former Mary Susan Perry, 22, Youngstown, N. Y., said they hope to make the trip in about 50 days. They are experienced sailors.

ation. The members will visit each of these proposed locations and review the advantages of each.

The new animal disease facility as planned will include laboratories for research simultaneously on 25 different animal diseases, so arranged that there will be no possibility of exposure of animals in one section to any of the diseases on which work may be under way in another section. Complete protection for laboratory workers against diseases that may be communicable to humans will be included.

Safety measures also will be adopted preventing the escape of disease organisms from the laboratory that might infect livestock herds and flocks or humans.

In addition to the research, the facility will have space and equipment for testing and diagnostic work required in the livestock disease control and regulatory activities of the department.

Youth Baseball Opens Tonight

Parade, Ceremonies To Kick Off Season

Spangled pageantry and colorful ceremonies will get the 1956 young people's baseball season off to a flying start here Monday evening.

A full-fledged street parade, complete with color guard, marching band and all the youthful ball players will start from the high school at 6:30 P. M.

And full-fledged opening-day ceremonies for both the Little League and the Babe Ruth League seasons will be held at the opening games of both leagues a short while later.

Although the celebration is centering around the Little League, which includes some 180 boys, both the Babe Ruth League and the American Legion junior baseball team are being included, according to Judge Max Dice, Little League president.

The evening's parade will run from the High School on Temple St. down to E. Court St., over to Main St., up to Main to Temple St. and from there to the Little League park on O a Ward Ave.

Little League's opening game will be played there at the field immediately after the parade. The contest will be a meeting between last year's champions, the Record-Herald Flashes and a lively Coca-Cola Jets nine.

CEREMONIES PRECEDING the game will feature the traditional throwing out of the first ball, and probably a few short inspirational talks. League officials said Monday that Council President Ronnie Cornwell will toss out the first ball.

In the Babe Ruth League, three opening night games are scheduled—a contest at the city field between Good Hope and the Insurance Association team, a game at Jeffersonville between Brays and Jeff and a Bloomingburg-Medics battle at Bloomingburg.

The Legion Juniors played a double-header opening game against Springfield Sunday evening and (Please Turn to Page Two)

Immediate Problem Now Is Production

Many of Employees Continue At Work; Some On Vacation

"Our immediate problem is production and distribution" — that was Howard Wright's reply Monday morning to the question: "Is the Pennington Bakery here going to be rebuilt?"

Pressed for something more definite about the future of the big bakery that was gutted by fire before dawn Saturday, Wright said simply: "We just haven't had time to think much about anything except serving our customers." Those customers—around 3,000 of them—are spread over a 26-county area.

Wright said, however, that about half of the 200-plus employees of the bakery here would be given employment and some others would be put on normal vacations with pay, at least until some definite plans for the future had been worked out.

The Associated Press, in a story from Cincinnati Monday morning, quoted officials of the company as saying they plan immediate reconstruction of the bakery here.

H. G. Hutton, Pennington sales manager, was quoted as saying the fire loss was about $500,000. He said reconstruction would take about three months and that the company's Cincinnati and Frankfort, Ky., plants would fill orders until the new building is completed. An overheated smoke stack was believed to have caused the fire.

WRIGHT, who outlined the problems facing the company following the fire in a telephone conversation, was in Cincinnati conferring with Morgan Pennington, president of the company. Wright is vice president of the company and the general manager of the plant here.

Wright said that company officials are working out plans now for producing bread, buns, etc., in the Cincinnati bakery to supply the customers in the area served by the Washington C. H. bakery.

Several bakeries, he said, had offered to help out the Pennington Co. in the emergency, but added that Pennington officials are not yet certain whether the offers will have to be accepted.

Present plans, he said, call for shipping the bread and other products from the Cincinnati bakery (and from possibly from Columbus) to Washington C. H. and then transferring it to the trucks for distribution.

WRIGHT estimated that approximately half of the 200-plus employees will be given employment. Some of them already have gone to work in the Cincinnati bakery and some may go to the Columbus bakeries, if their offers to help in the emergency are accepted.

He was appreciative of the offers of the Columbus bakeries, and said they would be accepted if necessary.

He said: "One thing is certain — we are going to produce and distribute. Our first aim right now is to satisfy our customers."

Under this arrangement, he said, the 60 salesmen (the men who drive the trucks and deliver the Pennington products) are going to stay on the job.

Some of those who were employed in the plant, Wright said, will be given vacations with pay temporarily. Vacations are from one to two weeks, depending on time of employment, he explained.

JUST HOW many will be out of jobs as the result of the fire, was uncertain. Wright said during the height of the fire that "this is a terrible thing for us, but I keep thinking of the employees."

Since the shipping department on the east side of the big building was not so seriously damaged as the bakery proper and the office, Wright said that he will set up temporary offices there.

It is from this section of the building that the salesmen will load their trucks and start on their routes, he said.

To the many offers of help here, Wright said: "There is one thing that we do need — five or six used stoves."

Bill Stoughton, manager of the Chamber of Commerce here, told Pennington and Wright in a conversation Monday morning that the Chamber was ready and willing to "do anything we can to help." He offered the use of part of the Chamber office.

Hospital Bulletin Reports President's Condition 'Excellent'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's aides said today that the Chief Executive has "resumed his job" — less than three days after undergoing major surgery.

This morning, the President took another little walk — this time on his own initiative. Walter Reed Hospital's latest bulletin said that "the President's condition remains excellent."

The bulletin reported that their distinguished patient's pulse, blood pressure, temperature and respiration are "essentially normal." It added:

"He walked with but little support from his bed to an easy chair which was placed 20 feet from the bed.

"He sat in the chair for 15 minutes and then walked, again with little support, back to bed.

"During these exercises the President had less discomfort than yesterday."

Yesterday, only 30 hours after his emergency surgery of early Saturday morning, the President walked a total of about 30 feet with attendants partly supporting him. Today the only assistance he had was a hand on the elbow.

LATER, Eisenhower conferred for 10 minutes with his chief assistant, Sherman Adams, and reached several decisions including the designation of Vice President Nixon to represent him at two forthcoming events—the regular National Security Council meeting Thursday and a luncheon Wednesday for West German Chancellor Adenauer.

Eisenhower also rejected a Russian bid for all members of the U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff to visit the Soviet Union.

Eisenhower left the way open for some of the Joint Chiefs to go to Russia later on condition they were given plenty of time outside Moscow to look at "activities of special interest to their own services."

The Soviet move was the outgrowth of an invitation, which has been accepted, for Gen. Nathan Twining, Air Force chief of staff, to attend the Soviet Union's aviation celebration June 24.

Bloodmobile To Come Here On Thursday

Five-Month Report Shows More Blood Used Than Given

The Blood Bank will be at the First Christian Church here Thursday, June 14, from 10 A. M. to 3:45 P. M.

On its regularly scheduled visit to Fayette County, the bloodmobile Blood Bank will be here then to collect blood donations for use here in Fayette County.

Quota for this month is 150 pints. Every effort is being made to put the total donation over the top.

Recruiting of donors this time is being carried on by members of the 4-H Junior Leaders organization, under the direction of Gene Gustin, the president. Prospective donors not contacted by a Junior Leader may call one in their neighborhood or Mrs. Leonard Korn, executive secretary of the Red Cross Chapter here.

Announcement of the bloodmobile's coming was made by the Red Cross in connection with the report for May. The report summarized Red Cross activities here for the last month and for the first five months of the year.

A total of 51 pints of blood was used by Fayette County Memorial Hospital for transfusions during the month, the report said. During the year, it stated, 354 pints have been used and 355 donated—which indicates that the hospital never has a satisfactory reserve supply on hand, and that an overfulfilled quota during the present campaign would be a great assistance.

MRS. KORN pointed out, significantly, that the count on the blood used took into consideration only that which was used at the hospital here and did not include that which was used by Fayette County in other hospitals.

Fayette Counties, she noted, are entitled to Red Cross blood (Please turn to page ten)

Most Of Nation Gets Hot Weather

CHICAGO (AP) — Unseasonably warm weather covered most of the nation today.

High temperature readings were reported from the Rocky Mountains across the Mississippi River Valley into the middle and south Atlantic states.

The mercury was in the 70s at most reporting stations early today, but several overnight lows of 80 to 90 degrees were recorded in widely separated areas. It was 101 in Pierre, S. D., yesterday.

County Is Proposed As Ideal Location For Animal Disease Lab

Fayette County has been advanced as an ideal site for a new Animal Disease Laboratory planned by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

In a letter to Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson, Sixth District Congressman James G. Polk said: "It is my respectful suggestion that consideration be given to locating this new laboratory in the state of Ohio, particularly in Fayette County near the city of Washington Court House. This location would seem to meet all the requirements for such a facility, and I strongly urge and recommend its consideration by the site committee."

Originally it was proposed by the department that a new facility for work on animal diseases be located at the Agricultural Research Center in Beltsville, Md., and $18,915,000 was included in appropriation requests for construction purposes. Congress, in considering the request, generally favored the new facilities but at allocation other than Beltsville.

The suggestion was made that the Department of Agriculture, in cooperation with the livestock industry and allied interests, select a site close to centers of livestock production, near or in conjunction with one of the state land grant colleges having a strong veterinary medical program and away from concentrated metropolitan areas.

Benson then invited submission of site proposals and set up procedures to consider them. The site committee will meet in St. Louis beginning June 27.

FAYETTE COUNTY Agent W. W. Montgomery, agreeing that this area would be a perfect site for such a laboratory facility, pointed out that the county meets all major conditions stipulated by the Department of Agriculture, including proximity to Ohio State University and its College of Veterinary Medicine.

Other factors to be considered by the site committee include: Human population — near a community that could readily absorb 100 to 200 new families and having adequate personnel to fill up to 100 non — scientific positions.

Accessibility — near major railroad and airline connections on a site adjacent to hard — surfaced roads;

Land — from 200 to 400 acres would be needed;

Adequate water, sewage and electrical facilities;

Availability of 1,000 (each) locally produced cattle, swine and sheep per year.

Artist And Bride Start Long Voyage

NYACK, N. Y. (AP) — A Greek artist and his blonde American bride set sail yesterday in a 28-foot boat on a 5,000-mile honeymoon voyage to Athens, Greece. Savas Georgiu, 37, and his bride, the former Mary Susan Perry, 22, Youngstown, N. Y., said they hope to make the trip in about 50 days. They are experienced sailors.

ation. The members will visit each of these proposed locations and review the advantages of each.

The new animal disease facility as planned will include laboratories for research simultaneously on 25 different animal diseases, so arranged that there will be no possibility of exposure of animals in one section to any of the diseases on which work may be under way in another section. Complete protection for laboratory workers against diseases that may be communicable to humans will be included.

Safety measures also will be adopted preventing the escape of disease organisms from the laboratory that might infect livestock herds and flocks or humans.

In addition to the research, the facility will have space and equipment for testing and diagnostic work required in the livestock disease control and regulatory activities of the department.

Youth Baseball Opens Tonight

Parade, Ceremonies To Kick Off Season

Spangled pageantry and colorful ceremonies will get the 1956 young people's baseball season off to a flying start here Monday evening.

A full-fledged street parade, complete with color guard, marching band and all the youthful ball players will start from the high school at 6:30 P. M.

And full-fledged opening-day ceremonies for both the Little League and the Babe Ruth League seasons will be held at the opening games of both leagues a short while later.

Although the celebration is centering around the Little League, which includes some 180 boys, both the Babe Ruth League and the American Legion junior baseball team are being included, according to Judge Max Dice, Little League president.

The evening's parade will run from the High School on Temple St., down to E. Court St., over to Main St., up to Main to Temple St. and from there to the Little League park on Oa Ward Ave.

Little League's opening game will be played there at the field immediately after the parade. The contest will be a meeting between last year's champions, the Record-Herald Flashes and a lively Coca-Cola Jets nine.

CEREMONIES PRECEDING the game will feature the traditional throwing out of the first ball, and probably a few short inspirational talks. League officials said Monday that Council President Ronnie Cornwell will toss out the first ball.

In the Babe Ruth League, three opening night games are scheduled—a contest at the city field between Good Hope and the Insurance Association team, a game at Jeffersonville between Brays' and Jeff and a Bloomingburg-Medics battle at Bloomingburg.

The Legion Juniors played a double-header opening game against Springfield Sunday evening and (Please turn to page two)

Ave., during part of the afternoon. One piece of city fire equipment was on the scene for several hours, wetting down smoldering wreckage on the west side of the building.

Temporary repairs were being made on rest room facilities at the rear of the plant Monday morning.

DURING the conflagration which wiped out the Pennington Bakery here early Saturday morning, Greenfield sent a pumper and two men upon request of Fire Chief George Hall, but the equipment was not used, although the men manned the fire station here until relieved during the forenoon when part of the local fire fighters returned to the building.

Fire departments at Hillsboro, Wilmington and Sabina radioed here, offering their assistance if needed.

However, with three pieces of equipment on the scene, and only a six-inch main supplying water, no additional pumps could be used and the pressure be maintained.

Fireman Russell Whited, who was overcome by smoke and fumes, and hospitalized, was to be released from the hospital Monday.

The Meriweather Motor Co. building, immediately west of the Pennington plant, sustained damage to the roof, due to intense heat which will make it necessary to replace the roof. Evergreen trees and roses in the landscaping about the building also were damaged.

Mishap Leaves Bloomingburg Phones Cut Off

Bloomingburg was isolated from the outside world for about three and one-half hours Monday morning when its telephone connections to Washington C. H. were damaged and put out of service.

The community found itself unable to place phone calls to any outside area except Jeffersonville. Calls within Bloomingburg itself were unimpaired.

Service broke down about 8 A. M. when flying equipment owned by Gus Brumfield, 1242 Columbus Ave. here, cut the Washington C. H.-Bloomingburg truck line. Bob Allen, plan. chief at the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. here said. The truck line also carried Bloomingburg-New Holland connections.

Brumfield's equipment was loading hay on the John Browning farm on the Old Springfield Road when the accident occurred, Allen said. Browning's service was out of order entirely throughout the breakdown. The rest of the community was only affected in the making of out-of-town calls.

Service was finally restored about 11:30 A. M., Allen said.

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio war orphans and children of severely disabled veterans are being reminded that tuition-free scholarships are available to state-supported colleges and universities.

About 40 such scholarships are available, but fewer than that number have applied, the chairman of the War Orphans Scholarship Board reports.

Children of deceased or severely disabled veterans who entered the armed services as legal residents of Ohio are eligible. The armed services include the Army, Air Force, Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard.

Fayette Countians In France Get Together On Memorial Day

Two native Fayette Countians, a long way from home on Memorial day, took part in an American holiday service sponsored by the American Legion Post No. 1 in Paris, France, last May 30.

Mrs. Elizabeth H. Davidson, 514 East St., who is presently on tour la Europe, and Dr. Cecil Hays, a Parish dentist who is the brother of Sheriff Orland Hays here, celebrated the holiday in a typically American fashion in the French city.

Mrs. Davidson wrote of the celebration in a letter just received by the Record-Herald. She spent the day with Dr. and Mrs. Hays, participating in a variety of holiday ceremonies under Legion auspices.

French and American flags decorated the graves of American war dead at one cemetery visited by the group. At another, the Parisian military cemetery which boasts a scribes as "out of this world," a Memorial Day address was given by the Hon. Douglas Dillon.

One highlight of the afternoon, according to Mrs. Davidson, was a French child choir which sang "La Marseillaise," the French national anthem, and followed it with an English rendition of America.

A service in a country cemetery near Paris closed the day for the American group. Here, Mrs. Davidson writes, the main address was given by Major General Harry G. Armstrong USAF As dusk settled over the cemetery, a helicopter flying overhead sprinkled roses on the cemetery. An American soldier played taps from a nearby hillside.

The day closed with a reception for Americans at the Legion Hall. Mrs. Davidson wrote from the Grand Hotel in Rome, Italy.

Warm Weather Health Hazards

Fayette County Health Director Urges Caution

Warmer weather poses new health hazards in public eating places which can be materially reduced by informed cooperation of the public, Dr. Scott, Fayette County Health Director, advised today.

Stressing the importance of sanitation to the public, Dr. Scott pointed out the urgency of preventing the spread of diseases. Public health must be safeguarded at all times. Summer poses health hazards which the public can help combat.

One such hazard is poisoning from improperly refrigerated foods particularly cream-type desserts. At any season, the creams and custards must be carefully handled.

Dr. Scott asked public cooperation with his department in insistence upon highest sanitation standards in public eating and drinking places.

Dr. Scott asked public cooperation in insistences upon highest sanitation standards in public eating and drinking places.

Dr. Scott said that the majority of our restaurant operators will cooperate with us. But the sanitarian can't be everywhere all the time. That's why we need the help of diners-out. If the public will just insist that where single service is not provided, glasses and utensils be washed thoroughly and sanitized, and that cream pastries be refrigerated, our health problems will be greatly reduced."

is transmitted in a great many cases by glasses or utensils which have not been effectively sanitized.

"Dipping a glass in a tank or rinsing it quickly in a spray of cold or lukewarm water, merely gives the germs a bath," Dr. Scott warns. "It takes thorough washing plus a prolonged bath in very hot water (190-186 degrees F.)—water so hot you can't put your hands in it comfortably—to kill germs. A chemical sanitizer may be used in place of the scalding water."

"Although the health department has wide powers, we don't want to be forced to use them," Dr. Scott said. "We know that the majority of our restaurant operators will cooperate with us. But the sanitarian can't be everywhere all the time. That's why we need the help of diners-out. If the public will just insist that where single service is not provided, glasses and utensils be washed thoroughly and sanitized, and that cream pastries be refrigerated, our health problems will be greatly reduced."

Co. M and Co. H Plan To Continue Program

Reserve units in Washington C. H. apparently won't be affected by the Army's forthcoming million-man reserve strength cutback—in fact, if anything, they probably will be growing.

On the heels of an Army announcement of the wholesale manpower curtailment, officers of Company M, the county's National Guard unit, and Company H, the county Army Reserve outfit, said they didn't think the cutback would affect them at all. Both units said their plans were based on growth, not reduction, of strength.

Lieut. Don Wood, commander of the infant 25-man Company H here, said that his unit has plans that "envision a unit as large as 175 men," sometime within the next few years and that cutbacks would not mean a thing to him.

Lieut. Charles Wimer, commander of the 85-man Company M, said "our unit doesn't expect to shrink at all. If anything, we'll probably gain a few men in the coming months."

The Army announced Monday that it will discharge 475,000 ready reservists and transfer 500,000 others to the standby reserve list. The action was described as a wholesale effort to end the military service liability of World War II and Korean War veterans and to weed out the dead wood.

Lieut. Wood's unit, which has been officially in existence only six months, was described as "just getting started," and hard after its big expansion goals.

The unit was created in part to absorb the expected influx of boys returning from the army's new training plan that calls for six months of active duty and seven and one half years in the reserves. Company H Lieut. Wood said, is expecting some new equipment to help outfit the expected expansion in ranks. He said that the unit is due to pick up some new equipment during its two weeks of active summer duty at Camp Breckenridge, Ky., July 1-15.

Ohio War Orphans Given Reminder

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio war orphans and children of severely disabled veterans are being reminded that tuition-free scholarships are available to state-supported colleges and universities.

About 40 such scholarships are available, but fewer than that number have applied, the chairman of the War Orphans Scholarship Board reports.

Children of deceased or severely disabled veterans who entered the armed services as legal residents of Ohio are eligible. The armed services include the Army, Air Force, Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard.

Fayette Countians In France Get Together On Memorial Day

Two native Fayette Countians, a long way from home on Memorial day, took part in an American holiday service sponsored by the American Legion Post No. 1 in Paris, France, last May 30.

Mrs. Elizabeth H. Davidson, 514 East St., who is presently on tour in Europe, and Dr. Cecil Hays, a Parish dentist who is the brother of Sheriff Orland Hays here, celebrated the holiday in a typically American fashion in the French city.

Mrs. Davidson wrote of the celebration in a letter just received by the Record-Herald. She spent the day with Dr. and Mrs. Hays, participating in a variety of holiday ceremonies under Legion auspices.

French and American flags decorated the graves of American war dead at one cemetery visited by the group. At another, the Parisian military cemetery which boasts a scribes as "out of this world," a Memorial Day address was given by the Hon. Douglas Dillon.

One highlight of the afternoon, according to Mrs. Davidson, was a French child choir which sang "La Marseillaise," the French national anthem, and followed it with an English rendition of America.

A service in a country cemetery near Paris closed the day for the American group. Here, Mrs. Davidson writes, the main address was given by Major General Harry G. Armstrong USAF As dusk settled over the cemetery, a helicopter flying overhead sprinkled roses on the cemetery. An American soldier played taps from a nearby hillside.

The day closed with a reception for Americans at the Legion Hall. Mrs. Davidson wrote from the Grand Hotel in Rome, Italy.

Warm Weather Health Hazards

Fayette County Health Director Urges Caution

Warmer weather poses new health hazards in public eating places which can be materially reduced by informed cooperation of the public, Dr. Scott, Fayette County Health Director, advised today.

Stressing the importance of sanitation to the public, Dr. Scott pointed out the urgency of preventing the spread of diseases. Public health must be safeguarded at all times. Summer poses health hazards which the public can help combat.

One such hazard is poisoning from improperly refrigerated foods particularly cream-type desserts. At any season, the creams and custards must be carefully handled.

Dr. Scott asked public cooperation with his department in insistence upon highest sanitation standards in public eating and drinking places.

Dr. Scott asked public cooperation in insistences upon highest sanitation standards in public eating and drinking places. "If a glass comes to you smeared with lipstick, send it back," he advised. "Refuse to accept cracked cups or dishes; the cracks may harbor germs. Insist that eating utensils be covered or otherwise protected from flies, vermin and dust, all most prevalent in summer," he stated.

"Among diseases which may be transmitted by improperly cleaned glasses and utensils are colds, typhoid, diphtheria and mumps," the health director said. "Trench mouth is transmitted in a great many cases by glasses or utensils which have not been effectively sanitized.

"Dipping a glass in a tank or rinsing it quickly in a spray of cold or lukewarm water merely gives the germs a bath," Dr. Scott warns. "It takes thorough washing plus a prolonged bath in very hot water (190-186 degrees F.)—water so hot you can't put your hands in it comfortably—to kill germs. A chemical sanitizer may be used in place of the scalding water."

"Although the health department has wide powers, we don't want to be forced to use them," Dr. Scott said. "We know that the majority of our restaurant operators will cooperate with us. But the sanitarian can't be everywhere all the time. That's why we need the help of diners-out. If the public will just insist that where single service is not provided, glasses and utensils be washed thoroughly and sanitized, and that cream pastries be refrigerated, our health problems will be greatly reduced."

Military Cut Not Felt Here

Co. M and Co. H Plan To Continue Program

Reserve units in Washington C. H. apparently won't be affected by the Army's forthcoming million-man reserve strength cutback—in fact, if anything, they probably will be growing.

On the heels of an Army announcement of the wholesale manpower curtailment, officers of Company M, the county's National Guard unit, and Company H, the county Army Reserve outfit, said they didn't think the cutback would affect them at all. Both units said their plans were based on growth, not reduction, of strength.

Lieut. Don Wood, commander of the infant 25-man Company H here, said that his unit has plans that "envision a unit as large as 175 men," sometime within the next few years and that cutbacks would not mean a thing to him.

Lieut. Charles Wimer, commander of the 85-man Company M, said "our unit doesn't expect to shrink at all. If anything, we'll probably gain a few men in the coming months."

The Army announced Monday that it will discharge 475,000 ready reservists and transfer 500,000 others to the standby reserve list. The action was described as a wholesale effort to end the military service liability of World War II and Korean War veterans and to weed out the dead wood.

Lieut. Wood's unit, which has been officially in existence only six months, was described as "just getting started," and hard after its big expansion goals.

The unit was created in part to absorb the expected influx of boys returning from the army's new training plan that calls for six months of active duty and seven and one half years in the reserves. Company H Lieut. Wood said, is expecting some new equipment to help outfit the expected expansion in ranks. He said that the unit is due to pick up some new equipment during its two weeks of active summer duty at Camp Breckenridge, Ky., July 1-15.

How Many Realize That "We" Could Help?

Probably just about everyone of us, on some occasion or other, is or has been guilty of the "they" complex.

Again and again most of us have heard, and sometimes ourselves have used such statements as "Why do they allow such things to happen?"; "Why don't they enforce the law to keep such things from happening?"; "Why don't they fix up more of our streets?"; "Why don't the police stop our neighbors from doing so and so?"; "They could stop this waste of tax money if they wanted to"; "Why don't they beautify some of these barren spots here and there?"; "Why don't they quit fussing and get together on schools and just go ahead and build everything we need?"; "Why don't they do this or that?"

Undoubtedly we could expand such a list indefinitely but there is one change that should be made in each one of these statements or questions.

Did most of us ever hesitate long enough to remember that in nearly every such question asked the pronoun should be changed from "they" to "we"?

How many of us recognize the importance of cooperation and a willingness in helping to take the lead in the many good things that we think should be accomplished?

It is a mighty easy matter to tell what others should do; but to become a part of the program ourselves is another matter. Any project to be accomplished takes an earnest desire to see something done, a leader to see that action is taken, and then a campaign to see that actions are carried out. To be successful it takes the "we" not the "they."

Some, without question, will say that a single person cannot accomplish anything. Just examine any project that has ever been carried out and you will find one individual who put his heart and soul into it and gave his every effort that success might be attained.

Sure there have been folks on the side lines. Too often they have been there criticizing the efforts and have not put a finger to the movement. They have been content to let George do it.

Look around at accomplishments, and it will be quickly noted that the larger the goal, and the more "we" in the effort, the more appreciation there is for the project when completed.

The sooner we get rid of the idea of "They should do this or that," and come forward with the idea, "We're going to get such and such done" the sooner can our community, our county, our state, our nation and our world be made a better place in which to live.

By being a part, there is appreciation and pride developed which cannot be secured by the person on the sidelines. Participation is needed—and the greater that participation, the greater can be the accomplishment.

Sammy Davis Jr.--Cowboy?

NEW YORK (AP)—Sammy Davis Jr., currently one of the hottest figures in show business, has an unusual ambition and makes no secret of it.

He wants to star in a Western movie.

The idea of a film featuring a Negro cowboy doesn't seem at all singular to Sammy.

"People forget that after the Civil War many former slaves migrated and became cowboys," he said. "There were a lot of Negroes in the Old West."

Sammy, whose mind is as restless as his agile feet, is an entertainer who always likes to try something new. He is looking forward to costarring with his friend, Frank Sinatra, in a film called "Jazz Train," and he'd like to do the "Story of Bill Robinson," the great Negro tap dancer who taught him many of his tricks.

This year Sammy, a triple threat artist who can sing, dance and mimic, made his Broadway debut in the musical, "Mr. Wonderful."

To him that was like stepping alive into heaven. The Harlem-born kid, who celebrated his first birthday in a crib in a dressing room of the old Hippodrome theater, had reached the top at the age of 30.

There were a lot of hard years of tramping along the way, but now Sammy has it made. He has sold 3½ million records. He and his daddy and "Uncle Will" Mastin now have an act that fetches them from $15,000 to $25,000 a week. They get up to $20,000 for a single television show.

His dad and "Uncle Will" handle the money, give Sammy an allowance and are buying two annuities that will make him independent at 40.

"I couldn't get an extra $2 from them if I was dying," he said, grinning.

When Sammy goes in for something, he goes to the hilt. He owns a $70,000 Hollywood home that once belonged to Judy Garland. He likes hi-fi, so the home has three complete hi-fi setups.

He likes photography, so he has 10 cameras.

He likes Western history, so he has collected 20 valuable old frontier Colt revolvers.

He likes records, so he has a collection of 20,000. In the last four months he spent $1,500 for records.

He likes cuff links, so he has 350 pairs. He takes as many as 100 pairs with him on trips. "A man doesn't want to get caught short," he laughed.

Lawlessness Is Triumphant

British labor has, in terms of and political power, been more successful than American trade unionism. For one thing, it has stuck strictly to its own business. British labor leaders do not own private business ventures; none of them are millionaires unless they inherited the money. None of them have ever been involved in any form of racketeering nor are their personal rewards out of line with their published salaries.

Those who manage the political side of labor, the Labour Party, are all socialists of various shades, but they are all devoted men. Clement Attlee, Herbert Morrison, Hugh Gaitskell, and even Aneurin Bevan, whatever differences one may have with them, are men who are respected for their integrity even by their opponents. They have all been in government, one has been a Prime Minister and another is likely to be some day.

On the trade union side of British labor there is no racketeering. It would not be tolerated by the trade union movement on by the Treasury which is very strict on the subject of income tax payments. A private deal, involving money, between an employer and a trade union official, would be bound to end up in a criminal court. The labor movement is public and no labor leader could refuse to show his books on the grounds that it would comfort the enemies of labor.

The British are not angels, but they do have standards which seem not to have been inherited in this Anglo-Saxon country, for since the early days of organized labor, racketeering has always managed to invade certain areas of trade unionism. It may be like during prohibition or as with the income tax—a form of passive resistance. Samuel Gompers told how, in his time, certain labor leaders were actually working in the interest of the street railway companies rather than the workers whom they were reputed to represent. The building trades, as far back as one can go into the record, were given a black eye because business agents of these unions slowed up or speeded up work in accordance with private deals that they made with employers. Comparing this experience with British or German trade unionism of the same period, it may be suggested that the European unions were led by idealists, while the American unions were managed by some idealists like Gompers and some businessmen who worked out gimmicks to make a lucky buck.

One cause for racketeering is the attractiveness of the gains from racketeering. This word needs to be defined because as the small boy says, "What's your racket?" The very question gives an air of usualness and legitimacy to what is, beyond question, wrong. If Soviet Russia is really beating us in the arms race, there may be several explanations which require investigation but one can be the terrific cost of racketeering and the slow-down processes which damage production. While we were slowing down, the Russians employed the Stakhanovist speed-up.

The racket is the attractiveness of the gains from racketeering. This word needs to be defined because as the small boy says, "What's your racket?" The very question gives an air of usualness and legitimacy to what is, beyond question, wrong. If Soviet Russia is really beating us in the arms race, there may be several explanations which require investigation but one can be the terrific cost of racketeering and the slow-down processes which damage production. While we were slowing down, the Russians employed the Stakhanovist speed-up.

The racket is simply a means for earning money that becomes tax-free by the secrecy of the transaction. As a tax-free dollar is worth many times more than a taxed dollar it is clearly advantageous to find means to obtain and to own tax-free dollars. This, in substance, is the racket, whether in labor or in any other walk of life.

The device most successfully employed changes from time to time. At one period the most successful and simplest form was the "kick-back," but that is not used at the present time. The more dramatic and dangerous device is "protection." This was employed by Lepke and Gurrah and was part of the operation of what came to be called, "Murder, Inc."

It is also a simple device. A combination of union agents and gangsters and often corrupt employers organize to give an employer protection against gangsters or strike organizers for a fee. Sometimes a membership association is organized with a legal state charter. Those who are invited to join and refuse have their premises smashed or their places picketed. Sometimes someone is killed as a lesson to others. Sometimes acid is thrown into a man's eyes like into Victor Riesel's. Usually such racketeers have connections with politicians, who need not be corrupt but only afraid. Sometimes they are afraid of being called anti-labor or anti-liberal.

Agents Given Chief Credit For 'Discovering' New Stars

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Want to know who discovers movie stars these days? Despite what you may have read about eagle-eyed producers, agents are the ones who do the discovering.

It's unglamorous but true. Most of young hopefuls who are signed by the studios in Hollywood are not found in drive-in restaurants or soda fountains. They are brought to the studios by alert agents, interviewed, tested and signed.

Take Felicia Farr. The legend promoted about this taffy-haired beauty was that she was tabbed for stardom by her studio while slaving in a local eatery.

"Not so," says Felicia. "A friend of mine was hostess at Du-

Par's Restaurant in the Farmers Market. She got sick and asked me if I would take over her job for a week so she wouldn't lose it. I wasn't working at the time, so I agreed to do it.

"It wasn't the studio that discovered me; it was an agent, Herbert Gold. He asked me if I would be interested in a film career. I thought it was the same old line, so I didn't take much notice."

The agent persisted. Felicia was not exactly a tyro, having done a lot of TV commercials in New York. "I was the Betty Furness type, always opening and closing refrigerator doors," she explained.

Gold wanted to show her around at the studios, but held off until she began a play at a little theater

Citrus Fruit Peels Source Of Chemicals

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Those orange and lemon peels which you are so accustomed to tossing away as useless seem to be developing into an important medicine chest item. Scientists are extracting chemicals called citrus bioflavonoids from the skins of such fruits.

Medical Interest

Bioflavonoids have been known to science for more than 20 years. Just recently, however, medical interest in them has increased. In fact, they were described at a New York Academy of Science seminar as "the most exciting, broad and hopeful field of biological inquiry today."

There are many natural sources of these chemical substances, but they are most potent in orange and lemon peels.

While they are somewhat similar to vitamins, it hasn't yet been proved that bioflavonoids are as necessary to human life as are vitamins.

They have been used experimentally against such ailments as the common cold, chickenpox, rheumatic fever, coronary thrombosis, tonsillitis, influenza, polio, abnormal menstruation, diabetic complications—even tooth extractions. And they are often used as supplemental therapy in numerous diseases.

Apparently these bioflavonoids attack disease on a level pretty much overlooked until recently. Their work, it appears, is carried out in the body's 60,000 mile network of capillaries, or tiny blood vessels.

Dr. Benjamin W. Ziefach, an authority on capillaries, believes that capillaries break down or are weakened when some chemical change occurs in the body. Bioflavonoids, he thinks, may strengthen brittle capillaries.

At any rate more than a dozen drug firms are marketing bioflavonoid products and production of them has been trebled recently.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

B. W. F.: Are air conditioners of any benefit to sufferers of hay fever?

In many instances there is much relief given by the use of an air conditioner, since the person suffering from hay fever then inhales filtered air which is relatively pollen-free.

The Nation Today

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's second physical crisis in nine months will force voters to think again of what they asked themselves the first time: Should he be given another four-year term?

The question does not arise out of lack of confidence in Eisenhower's honest opinion of what he thinks is best for himself and the country. He has said he will frankly say if he's not up to another four years.

But he is a man of 65, carrying the enormous burden of the presidency. He would turn 70 before the end of a second term. He has had two major illnesses within these nine months: a heart attack and an intestinal block.

Because of the great public liking for him and trust in his judgment, questions about his physical fitness quieted down once he said the heart attack that he felt he could stand another four White House years.

But now, in view of this second illness, voters cannot help asking themselves this question, even though he may again say he feels able to run for re-election.

Are these two illnesses so close together, simply accidents that could happen to any man? Or are they signs of a physical weakening under the stress and strain of the presidency that may be repeated?

Eisenhower himself has said, "The presidency is probably the most taxing job, as far as tiring of the mind and spirit. . . . My future life must be carefully regulated to avoid excessive fatigue."

His doctors have said he will not be able to resume his full duties for at least a month. This means—counting 3½ months after his heart attack—that for 4½ months in a year he could not function fully.

The doctors have said there is no connection between the two illnesses, and they have been almost enthusiastically optimistic about his ability to run again. And Eisenhower has shown remarkable recuperative powers.

In fairness to himself and to the country he probably will wait until he is back on his job full-time before saying for the second time whether he will try for re-election.

That will be mid-July. Until then he will leave Democrats and Republicans with their tongues hanging out—but wagging—in opposite expectation, the Republicans knowing their best hope is Eisenhower, the Democrats knowing their best hope is anybody else.

How Many Realize That "We" Could Help?

Probably just about everyone of us, on some occasion or other, is or has been guilty of the "they" complex.

Again and again most of us have heard, and sometimes ourselves have used such statements as "Why do they allow such things to happen?"; "Why don't they enforce the law to keep such things from happening?"; "Why don't they fix up more of our streets?"; "Why don't the police stop our neighbors from doing so and so?"; "They could stop this waste of tax money if they wanted to"; "Why don't they beautify some of these barren spots here and there?"; "Why don't they quit fussing and get together on schools and just go ahead and build everything we need?"; "Why don't they do this or that?"

Undoubtedly we could expand such a list indefinitely but there is one change that should be made in each one of these statements or questions.

Did most of us ever hesitate long enough to remember that in nearly every such question asked the pronoun should be changed from "they" to "we"?

How many of us recognize the importance of cooperation and a willingness in helping to take the lead in the many good things that we think should be accomplished?

It is a mighty easy matter to tell what others should do; but to become a part of the program ourselves is another matter.

Any project to be accomplished takes an earnest desire to see something done, a leader to see that action is taken, and then a campaign to see that actions are carried out. To be successful it takes the "we" not the "they."

Some, without question, will say that a single person cannot accomplish anything. Just examine any project that has ever been carried out and you will find one individual who put his heart and soul into it and gave his every effort that success might be attained.

Sure there have been folks on the side lines. Too often they have been there criticizing the efforts and have not put a finger to the movement. They have been content to let George do it.

Look around at accomplishments, and it will be quickly noted that the larger the goal, and the more "we" in the effort, the more appreciation there is for the project when completed.

The sooner we get rid of the idea of "They should do this or that," and come forward with the idea, "We're going to get such and such done" the sooner can our community, our county, our state, our nation and our world be made a better place in which to live.

By being a part, there is appreciation and pride developed which cannot be secured by the person on the sidelines. Participation is needed—and the greater that participation, the greater can be the accomplishment.

Sammy Davis Jr.--Cowboy?

NEW YORK (AP)—Sammy Davis Jr., currently one of the hottest figures in show business, has an unusual ambition and makes no secret of it.

He wants to star in a Western movie.

The idea of a film featuring a Negro cowboy doesn't seem at all singular to Sammy.

"People forget that after the Civil War many former slaves migrated and became cowboys," he said. "There were a lot of Negroes in the Old West."

Sammy, whose mind is as restless as his agile feet, is an entertainer who always likes to try something new. He is looking forward to costarring with his friend, Frank Sinatra, in a film called "Jazz Train," and he'd like to do the "Story of Bill Robinson," a great Negro tap dancer who taught him many of his tricks.

This year Sammy, a triple threat artist who can sing, dance and mimic, made his Broadway debut in the musical, "Mr. Wonderful."

To him that was like stepping alive into heaven. The Harlem-born kid, who celebrated his first birthday in a crib in a dressing room of the old Hippodrome theater, had reached the top at the age of 30.

There were a lot of hard years of trouping along the way, but now Sammy has it made. He has sold 3½ million records. He and his daddy and "Uncle Will" Martin now have an act that fetches them from $15,000 to $25,000 a week. They get up to $20,000 for a single television show.

His dad and "Uncle Will" handle the money, give Sammy an allowance and are buying two annuities that will make him independent at 40.

"I couldn't get an extra $2 from them if I was dying," he said, grinning.

When Sammy goes in for something, he goes to the hilt. He owns a $70,000 Hollywood home that once belonged to Judy Garland. He likes hi-fi, so the home has three complete hi-fi setups.

He likes photography, so he has 10 cameras.

He likes Western history, so he has collected 20 valuable old frontier Colt revolvers.

He likes records, so he has a collection of 20,000. In the last four months he spent $1,500 for records.

He likes cuff links, so he has 350 pairs. He takes as many as 100 pairs with him on trips.

"A man doesn't want to get caught short," he laughed.

Lawlessness Is Triumphant

British labor has, in terms of and political power, been more successful than American trade unionism. For one thing, it has stuck strictly to its own business. British labor leaders do not own private business ventures; none of them are millionaires unless they inherited the money. None of them have ever been involved in any form of racketeering nor are their personal rewards out of line with their published salaries.

Those who manage the political side of labor, the Labour Party, are all socialists of various shades, but they are all devoted men. Clement Attlee, Herbert Morrison, Hugh Gaitskell, and even Aneurin Bevan, whatever differences one may have with them, are men who are respected for their integrity even by their opponents. They have all been in government, one has been a Prime Minister and another is likely to be some day.

On the trade union side of British labor there is no racketeering. It would not be tolerated by the trade union movement on by the Treasury which is very strict on the subject of income tax payments. A private deal, involving money, between an employer and a trade union official, would be bound to end up in a criminal court. The labor movement is public and no labor leader could refuse to show his books on the grounds that it would comfort the enemies of labor.

The British are not angels, but they do have standards which seem not to have been inherited in this Anglo-Saxon country, for since the early days of organized labor, racketeering has always managed to invade certain areas of trade unionism. It may be like during prohibition or as with the income tax—a form of passive resistance. Sameul Gompers told how, in his time, certain labor leaders were actually working in the interest of the street railway companies rather than the workers whom they were reputed to represent. The building trades, as far back as one can go into the record, were given a black eye because business agents of these unions slowed up or speeded up work in accordance with private deals that they made with employers. Comparing this experience with British or German trade unionism of the same period, it may be suggested that the European unions were led by idealists, while the American unions were managed by some idealists like Gompers and some businessmen who worked out gimmicks to make a lucky buck.

One cause for racketeering is the attractiveness of the gains from racketeering. This word needs to be defined because the small boy says, "What's your racket?" The very question gives an air of usualness and legitimacy to what is, beyond question, wrong. If Soviet Russia is really beating us in the arms race, there may be several explanations which require investigation but one can be the terrific cost of racketeering and the slow-down processes which damage production. While we were slowing down, the Russians employed the Stakhanovist speed up.

The racket is the attractiveness of the gains from racketeering. This word needs to be defined because the small boy says, "What's your racket?" The very question gives an air of usualness and legitimacy to what is, beyond question, wrong. If Soviet Russia is really beating us in the arms race, there may be several explanations which require investigation but one can be the terrific cost of racketeering and the slow-down processes which damage production. While we were slowing down, the Russians employed the Stakhanovist speed up.

The racket is simply a means for earning money that becomes tax-free by the secrecy of the transaction. As a tax-free dollar is worth many times more than a taxed dollar it is clearly advantageous to find means to obtain and to own tax-free dollars. This, in substance, is the racket, whether in labor or in any other walk of life.

The device most successfully employed changes from time to time. At one period the most successful and simplest form was the "kick-back," but that is not used at the present time. The more dramatic and dangerous device is "protection." This was employed by Lepke and Gurrah and was part of the operation of what came to be called, "Murder, Inc."

It is also a simple device. A combination of union agents and gangsters and often corrupt employers organize to give an employer protection against gangsters or strike organizers for a fee. Sometimes a membership association is organized with a legal state charter. Those who are invited to join and refuse have their premises smashed or their places picketed. Sometimes someone is killed as a lesson to others. Sometimes acid is thrown into a man's eyes like into Victor Riesel's. Usually such racketeers have connections with politicians, who need not be corrupt but only afraid. Sometimes they are only afraid of being called anti-labor or anti-liberal.

Agents Given Chief Credit For 'Discovering' New Stars

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Want to know who discovers movie stars these days? Despite what you may have read about eagle-eyed producers, agents are the ones who do the discovering.

It's unglamorous but true. Most of young hopefuls who are signed by the studios in Hollywood are not found in drive-in restaurants or soda fountains. They are brought to the studios by alert agents, interviewed, tested and signed.

Take Felicia Farr. The legend promoted about this taffy-haired beauty was that she was tabbed for stardom by her studio while slaving in a local eatery.

"Not so," says Felicia. "A friend of mine was hostess at Du-

Par's Restaurant in the Farmers Market. She got sick and asked me if I would take over her job for a week so she wouldn't lose it. I wasn't working at the time, so I agreed to do it.

"It wasn't the studio that discovered me; it was an agent, Herbert Gold. He asked me if I would be interested in a film career. I thought it was the same old line, so I didn't take much notice."

The agent persisted. Felicia was not exactly a tyro, having done a lot of TV commercials in New York. "I was the Betty Furness type, always opening and closing refrigerator doors," she explained.

Gold wanted to show her around at the studios, but held off until she began a play at a little theater

Those orange and lemon peels which you are so accustomed to tossing away as useless seem to be developing into an important medicine chest item. Scientists are extracting chemicals called citrus bioflavonoids from the skins of such fruits.

Medical Interest

Bioflavonoids have been known to science for more than 20 years. Just recently, however, medical interest in them has increased. In fact, they were described at a New York Academy of Science seminar as "the most exciting, broad and hopeful field of biological inquiry today."

There are many natural sources of these chemical substances, but they are most potent in orange and lemon peels.

While they are somewhat similar to vitamins, it hasn't yet been proved that bioflavonoids are as necessary to human life as are vitamins.

They have been used experimentally against such ailments as the common cold, chickenpox, rheumatic fever, coronary thrombosis, tonsillitis, influenza, polio, abnormal menstruation, diabetic complications—even tooth extractions. And they are often used as supplemental therapy in numerous diseases.

Apparently these bioflavonoids attack disease on a level pretty much overlooked until recently. Their work, it appears, is carried out in the body's 60,000 mile network of capillaries, or tiny blood vessels.

Dr. Benjamin W. Zwiefach, an authority on capillaries, believes that capillaries break down or are weakened when some chemical change occurs in the body. Bioflavonoids, he thinks, may strengthen brittle capillaries.

At any rate more than a dozen drug firms are marketing bioflavonoid products and production of them has been trebled recently.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

B. W. F.: Are air conditioners of any benefit to sufferers of hay fever?

In many instances there is much relief given by the use of an air conditioner, since the person suffering from hay fever then inhales filtered air which is relatively pollen-free.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's second physical crisis in nine months will force voters to think again of what they asked themselves the first time: Should he be given another four-year term?

The question does not arise out of lack of confidence in Eisenhower's honest opinion of what he thinks is best for himself and the country. He has said he will frankly say if he's not up to another four years.

But he is a man of 65, carrying the enormous burden of the presidency. He would turn 70 before the end of a second term. He has had two major illnesses within these nine months: a heart attack and an intestinal block.

Because of the great public liking for him and trust in his judgment, questions about his physical fitness quieted down once he said the heart attack that he felt he could stand another four White House years.

But now, in view of this second illness, voters cannot help asking themselves this question, even though he may again say he feels able to run for re-election.

Are these two illnesses so close together simply accidents that could happen to any man? Or are they signs of a physical weakening under the stress and strain of the presidency that may be repeated?

Eisenhower himself has said, "The presidency is probably the most taxing job, as far as tiring of the mind and spirit... My future life must be carefully regulated to avoid excessive fatigue."

His doctors have said he will not be able to resume his full duties for at least a month. This means—counting 3½ months after his heart attack—that for 4½ months in a year he could not function fully.

The doctors have said there is no connection between the two illnesses, and they have been almost enthusiastically optimistic about his ability to run again. And Eisenhower has shown remarkable recuperative powers.

In fairness to himself and to the country he probably will wait until he is back on his job full-time before saying for the second time whether he will try for re-election.

That will be mid-July. Until then he will leave Democrats and Republicans with their tongues hanging out—but wagging—in opposite expectation, the Republicans knowing their best hope is Eisenhower, the Democrats knowing their best hope is anybody else.

Beautiful Afternoon Wedding Unites Couple In Marriage

Grace Methodist Church was the setting on Sunday for the open church wedding of Miss Roberta Ann Theobald and Mr. William Edward Case.

Two cathedral vases of pale blue delphinium, white gladioli and branch candelabra holding white tapers formed the background at the altar for the white satin kneeling bench and the family pews marked with the same flowers completed the decorations of the church.

A half hour of nuptial music preceded the double ring service read at 3:30 P. M. by Dr. Floyd Faust, pastor of the Broadstreet Christian Church in Columbus. Mr. James Michael was soloist and included as his numbers, "Because," "Through The Years," "If I Could Tell You" and "The Lord's Prayer." Miss Marion Christopher, organist, presented the following selections: "Sarabande," "Nuptial Song," "Wedding Hymn," "Benediction Nuptiale," "I Love You Truly" and the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robert Theobald of this city, was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding gown was fashioned of white silk tulle. The moulded bodice featured paillette studded alencon lace at the sabrina neckline and at the waistline. Long sleeves tapered to points over her hands, and the full skirt billowing over an old fashioned train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was caught to a silk Juliet cap enhanced by rosepoint lace encrusted with iridescents.

Her only jewelry was cultured pearl earrings which was the gift of the bridegroom and she carried a white Bible topped with lilies of the valley and Fleur-de-Amour centered with a gold throated white orchid.

Attendants for the bride were Mrs. Robert Sellers of Dayton, matron of honor, Mrs. Ben Thomas, Mrs. Gordon Eldridge, of Columbus as bridesmaids and Miss Marjorie Hunter as bridesmaid.

The attendants all dressed identically were wearing ballerina length gowns of white nylon featuring a velvety print of delphinium blue. The moulded bodices were accented with wide rolled collars, with large bows which fell from the neckline to the hems of the full circular skirts, which were worn over fluffy petticoats and their large picture hats of matching blue lace complemented their ensembles.

They carried cascade bouquets of blue delphinium, white carnations and stephanotis.

Little Miss Nelly Maud Case was the flower girl wearing a white pleated collar and skirt, a blue net hat trimmed with tiny blue flowers and carried a white basket with blue and white flower petals. Master Bobby Bonham was the ring bearer and carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert I. Case of the Wilmington Road, had as best man, Mr. Ellis Miller, of this city and completing the wedding party, fraternity brothers, Mr. Larry Carey, Mr. Don Claypool of Columbus, Mr. Robert White of Detroit, Michigan, Mr. Robert McEntree of Cleveland and Mr. Ronald Coffey of Dayton.

A reception at the Washington Country Club was entertained by the bride's parents. Mrs. Theobald received the guests in delphinium blue afternoon dress of tulle with sequin and pearl trim and matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a wedgewood blue organza afternoon dress with iridescent trim and matching accessories.

Both mothers wore single white hybrid orchids with purple throats pinned at their shoulders.

Hostesses for the reception were Miss Maxine Gilmer, close friend of the bride, Mrs. Robert Woodmansee, Mrs. Mac Dews, Jr., cousin of the bride, and sorority sisters, Miss Vesta Kirby of Westlake, Miss Annette Bellinger of Rocky River, Miss Flo Compton of Columbus, Miss Sue Barchet and Miss Dinah Davis.

The bride's table was covered with a white satin cloth draped with tulle caught at intervals with wedding bells, and centered with a four tiered wedding cake iced in delphinium blue and white topped with a bride and groom in a frilly arch.

Later when the bride and groom left on their wedding trip to the Smoky Mountains, the bride was wearing a green silk and linen

Beautiful Afternoon Wedding Unites Couple In Marriage

Grace Methodist Church was the setting on Sunday for the open church wedding, of Miss Roberta Ann Theobald and Mr. William Edward Case.

Two cathedral vases of pale blue delphinium, white gladioli and branch candelabra holding white tapers formed the background at the altar for the white satin kneeling bench and the family pews marked with the same flowers completed the decorations of the church.

A half hour of nuptial music preceded the double ring service read at 3:30 P. M. by Dr. Floyd Faust, pastor of the Broadstreet Christian Church in Columbus.

Mr. James Michael was soloist and included as his numbers, "Because," "Through The Years," "If I Could Tell You" and "The Lord's Prayer." Miss Marian Christopher, organist, presented the following selections: "Sarabande," "Nuptial Song," "Wedding Hymn," "Benediction Nuptiale," "I Love You Truly" and the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robert Theobald of this city, was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding gown was fashioned of white silk tulle. The moulded bodice featured paillette studded alencon lace at the sabrina neckline and at the waistline. Long sleeves tapered to points over her hands, and the full skirt billowing over an old fashioned hoop, fell into a full chapel train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was caught to a silk Juliet cap enhanced by rosepoint lace encrusted with iridescents.

Her only jewelry was cultured pearl earrings which was the gift of the bridegroom and she carried a white Bible topped with lilies of the valley and Fleur-de-Amour centered with a gold throat white orchid.

Attendants for the bride were Mrs. Robert Sellers of Dayton, matron of honor, Mrs. Ben Thomas, Mrs. Gordon Eldridge, of Columbus as bridesmaids and Miss Marjorie Hunter as bridesmaid.

The attendants all dressed identically were wearing ballerina length gowns of white nylon featuring a velvety print of delphinium blue. The moulded bodices were accented with wide rolled collars, with large bows which fell from the neckline to the hems of the full circular skirts, which were worn over fluffy petticoats and their large picture hats of matching blue lace complemented their ensembles.

They carried cascade bouquets of blue delphinium, white carnations and stephanotis.

Little Miss Nelly Maud Case was the flower girl wearing a white pleated collar and skirt, a blue net hat trimmed with tiny blue flowers and carried a white basket with blue and white flower petals. Master Bobby Bonham was the ring bearer and carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert I. Case of the Wilmington Road, had as best man, Mr. Ellis Miller, of this city and completing the wedding party, fraternity brothers, Mr. Larry Carey, Mr. Don Claypool of Columbus, Mr. Robert White of Detroit, Michigan, Mr. Robert McEntree of Cleveland and Mr. Ronald Coffey of Dayton.

A reception at the Washington Country Club was entertained by the bride's parents. Mrs. Theobald received the guests in delphinium blue afternoon dress of tulle with sequin and pearl trim and matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a wedgewood blue organza afternoon dress with iridescent trim and matching accessories.

Both mothers wore single white hybrid orchids with purple throats pinned at their shoulders.

Hostesses for the reception were Miss Maxine Gilmer, close friend of the bride, Mrs. Robert Woodmansee, Mrs. Mac Dews, Jr., cousin of the bride, and sorority sisters, Miss Vesta Kirby of Westlake, Miss Annette Bellinger of Rocky River, Miss Flo Compton of Columbus, Miss Sue Barchet and Miss Dinah Davis.

The bride's table was covered with a white satin cloth draped with tulle caught at intervals with wedding bells, and centered with a four tiered wedding cake iced in delphinium blue and white topped with a bride and groom in a frilly arch.

Later when the bride and groom left on their wedding trip to the Smoky Mountains, the bride was wearing a green silk and linen

Stan And Herm Standout Stars For Cardinals

If All Opposition Like Pirates, St. Louis Could Clinch Pennant

(By The Associated Press)

If Stan Musial would hit every day as he does on Sundays and if Herm Wehmeier could pitch against every club as he does against Pittsburgh, the St. Louis Cardinals would be a cinch to win the National League pennant.

Sunday Musial cracked four hits, including a home run and double, and drove in four runs as the Cardinals earned a split with Pittsburgh that cut Cincinnati's first-place margin to 3 percentage points.

Wehmeier, who hasn't been able to beat anybody else all year, shut out the Pirates 3-0 with six hits after they had won the opener 11-3. It was his second victory of the season, both over the Pirates, over whom he holds a lifetime record of 25-8.

Musial, a .320 Sunday hitter — 20 points better than his weekday average — has hit half his eighth homers and has driven in a third of his 42 runs on Sundays.

Five National League teams are so closely bunched today a pennant would cover them all. Brooklyn, in fifth place, moved to within two games of the top by defeating Cincinnati 8-6. Pittsburgh, in first place for a couple of hours after its opening triumph, dropped into third place, a half game behind Cincinnati and St. Louis.

The New York Giants came from behind to nip the fourth-place Braves 5-3, leaving them still two games off the pace, only 7 points in front of the Dodgers.

The Chicago Cubs buried the Philadelphia Phillies deeper in the basement, sweeping both ends of a double-header, 2-1 in 11 innings and 5-2.

The New York Yankees salvaged the finale of their three-game series with Cleveland, blanking the Indians 6-0. Chicago's third-place White Sox climbed to within half a game of the Indians with a 3-2 triumph over Boston. Washington dumped Detroit out of a fourth-place tie by vanquishing the Tigers twice 6-5 and 12-9 while Kansas City snapped Baltimore's four-game winning streak with a 7-3 victory.

A pair of former Redbirds — southpaw Luis Arroyo and outfielder Bill Virdon — came back to haunt the Cardinals in the opener. Arroyo, traded to Pittsburgh earlier this year, held his former mates to seven hits and fanned five. Virdon, along with Gene Freese and Lee Walls, homered for the Bucs.

Brooklyn slashed five Cincinnati hurlers for 15 hits, including home runs by Randy Jackson and Charley Neal. Jackson batted in four runs as Ed Roebuck registered his first victory of the year, in relief.

Littler Seen As Sharp For National Open

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y. — After the fourth round of the Round Robin Golf Tournament Sunday, Lloyd Mantrum looked at Gene Littler, who had just beaten him, and remarked:

"I've got to go with you for the Open. I picked Cary Middlecoff, but you're playing well and you've got things going for you. You're playing in luck."

It was Littler's second big check in two weeks. He collected $5,778.50 for a second-place tie in the Texas International after losing a playoff to Australia's Peter Thomson.

Leading all the way after the second round over the par-72 Wykagyl course, Littler shot 69-69-68-68-70 for a 344 medal score. He hit a near record total of plus 55 points in the round robin scoring system, which awards points for each stroke by which a player beats the others in his foursome.

Nearest to him was Ted Kroll, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., who trailed by only two strokes in scoring but gathered only 31 points.

Dow Finsterwald of Athens, Ohio, finished third with plus 27 points.

Chillicothe Closes In on Jeff Nine

Chillicothe Businessmen's South Western Ohio League nine moved into undisputed control of second place in the SWO League's Sunday games.

Hillsboro, if they did well enough in their Sunday contest, could have moved in to tie Chillicothe. Results of the Hillsboro-Blanchester game and a Chillicothe Reformatory-Wilmington game had not been reported to League secretary Tom Smalley by Monday morning.

best of the season, after sinking two approach shots.

Glen Roseboom is shooting par — not at golf but at fishing; he has caught 72 this spring.

Paul Crosby now knows what an explosion shot is; Elmer Reed laid down a trick ball and when Crosby hit it, it really exploded.

Mac Dews, Jr., missed an eagle on No. 8 by inches.

Mrs. Roger Littleton sank a 50-foot wedge shot on No. 9 for a birdie 3.

Mrs. Wayne Shobe broke 100 for the first time this season when she finished 18 holes in 99. She had seven 1-putt greens.

Mrs. Shobe said she would like to play golf barefooted some day just to see what kind of score she could make.

Herb Sollars turned in his best-ever 18-hole round — 43 and 41 for a total of 84.

NEW GOLFING members are Harry Townsend, Richard Filbin, Mrs. Clarence Chrisman, M. S. Howard, S. Harper, Everett Waddie, Emerson Phares, Jr., and Fred Lomenie.

Captain Herb Russell was the guest of Robert Lyton.

Robert Poe of Dayton was Ralph Douglass' golfing guest. He is a southpaw cross-handed golfer.

Clarence Chrisman was out for the first time this season testing his back after last winter's operation.

Charles Dunton is vacationing in Florida and probably doing some golfing.

Paul Rodenfels and his son Tom were out for the first time — and Tom was outdoing his dad.

John McLean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill McLean turned in a 67 for his best-ever of the season.

Gene Sollars and his brother Herb were golfing during the week end.

Austin Wise and Bill Barrett played 27 holes in two hours and 47 minutes. They used the electric cart and turned in their best scores of the season.

Ronnie Cornwell shot a 70 (2 under par) for his best 18 holes of the season. He had one bogey and three birdies and the rest pars.

John Petty had a 43 for his best-of-the-season.

John Ellcessor, a southpaw, got his first eagle of the season on No. 4.

GEORGE FITZGERALD had a 36 for his best-ever. That was par all the way and something every golfer seeks to achieve.

Bill Himmelsbach got a 79 on his first 18 holes of the season.

Joe Tillett said his wife is now able to detect some of the faults in his swing.

Mrs. Bill McLean shot a 51 for her best-of-the-season. The pro shot his best-of-the-season — a sub-par 32.

Mrs. Roger Littleton had her best-of-the-season, a 54.

Mrs. Paul Pennington sank a chip shot on No. 8 that helped her card a 62 for one of her best rounds in a long time.

Mrs. Marvin Rossmann had a 54 for her best-of-the-season. She was playing with Mrs. Charles Griffiths who toured the course in 60.

Dan O'Brien, a former WHS star athlete now coaching, shot a 75 while playing here over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buxton are vacationing in Arkansas.

Bill Himmelsbach finally got his wife to go all the way around the course with him — but she rode the electric golf cart.

Hosts for the Men's Night party Thursday are Bud Schlue, Eugene McClain, Lowell Miller, Ed Vollette, Jim Grinstead and Donald Lange.

The next Country Club dance is scheduled for July 28.

Businessmen Beat Good Hope

Chillicothe Team Wins Easily, 15-2

The Chillicothe Businessmen's southwestern Ohio League nine pummeled Good Hope 15-2 in an SWO contest Sunday.

Although Good Hope held a 1-0 lead at the end of the first, the Businessmen came from behind and dashed the fortunes of the Fayette County team in the top of the second. They were never again in danger.

A big eighth inning gave the Loss County squad 8 runs to push their victory score even higher than it had been.

Good Hope scored its only other run in the bottom of the ninth.

Chillicothe won its game on 14 hits and no errors. A triple and a home run lived their contest.

The Good Hope squad picked up seven hits but made four costly errors.

Milledgeville Loses To Bainbridge 4-1

Bainbridge eased ahead of Milledgeville in the Southwestern Ohio League (SWO) standing when they turned back the Fayette County boys, 4 to 1.

The game was marked by some effective pitching in which there was not an extra base hit.

The Milledgevillians tallied their lone run on three successive singles in the last inning. C. Hendricks led off with a safety and came the rest of the way around on hits by his brother R. Hendricks and Wilt.

Only one of the Bainbridge was earned; the other 3 were set up by Milledgeville errors.

Hendricks fanned 6 and walked only one. Shumate got nine batters on strikes but he gave up 9 bases on balls.

Australian Pacing Ace Due In US

COLUMBUS — Ribands, the fastest harness horse ever bred in Australia, left that country by air Saturday for a pacing campaign in the United States, the U. S. Trotting Assn. has announced.

The horse is expected to arrive in New York this week.

The 8-year-old stallion owns a record 1:58.7 mile over the Harold Park course in Sydney, an oval slightly smaller than U. S. half-mile tracks.

Swaps Gets Rest After Record Run

INGLEWOOD, Calif. — Swaps today begins a two weeks rest, well-earned by his world record performance of 1:33.1 in the Argonaut Mile at Hollywood Park Saturday.

Owner Rex Ellsworth and trainer Mith Tenney plan to give the colt a breather until the $50,000 Inglewood Handicap June 23, at a mile and one-sixteenth.

Swaps now has three world records, the others being 1:40.2 for a mile and one-sixteenth set in the Californian last year, and 1:39.3 for a mile and 70 yards at Gulfstream last April.

First money of $29,750 in the Argonaut boosted total earnings to $511,500 for Swaps, the California-bred Kentucky Derby winner of 1955.

Stan And Herm Standout Stars For Cardinals

If All Opposition Like
Pirates, St. Louis
Could Clinch Pennant

(By The Associated Press)
If Stan Musial would hit every day as he does on Sundays and if Herm Wehmeier could pitch against every club as he does against Pittsburgh, the St. Louis Cardinals would be a cinch to win the National League pennant.
Sunday Musial cracked four hits, including a home run and double, and drove in four runs as the Cardinals earned a split with Pittsburgh that cut Cincinnati's first-place margin to 3 percentage points.

Wehmeier, who hasn't been able to beat anybody else all year, shut out the Pirates 3-0 with six hits after they had won the opener 11-3. It was his second victory of the season, both over the Pirates, over whom he holds a lifetime record of 25-8.

Musial, a 320 Sunday batter — 20 points better than his weekday average — has hit half his eight homers and has driven in a third of his 42 runs on Sundays.

Five National League teams are so closely bunched today a pennant would cover them all. Brooklyn, in fifth place, moved to within two games of the top by defeating Cincinnati 8-6. Pittsburgh, in first place for a couple of hours after its opening triumph, dropped into third place, a half game behind Cincinnati and St. Louis.

The New York Giants came from behind to nip the fourth-place Braves 5-3, leaving them still two games off the pace, only 7 points in front of the Dodgers. The Chicago Cubs buried the Philadelphia Phillies deeper in the basement, sweeping both ends of a double-header, 2-1 in 11 innings and 5-2.

The New York Yankees salvaged the finale of their three-game series with Cleveland, blanking the Indians 6-0. Chicago's third-place White Sox climbed to within half a game of the Indians with a 3-2 triumph over Boston. Washington dumped Detroit out of a fourth-place tie by vanquishing the Tigers twice 6-5 and 12-9 while Kansas City snapped Baltimore's four-game winning streak with a 7-3 victory.

A pair of former Redbirds — southpaw Luis Arroyo and outfielder Bill Virdon — came back to haunt the Cardinals in the opener. Arroyo, traded to Pittsburgh earlier this year, held his former mates to seven hits and fanned five. Virdon, along with Gene Freese and Lee Walls, homered for the Bucs.
Brooklyn slashed five Cincinnati hurlers for 15 hits, including home runs by Randy Jackson and Charley Neal. Jackson batted in four runs as Ed Roebuck registered his first victory of the year, in relief.

Feature: Webb (WCH), Holder (WCH), Taylor, Knisley (WCH), Hildebrandt, Wheeler and Huddleston.

best of the season, after sinking two approach shots.

Glen Roseboom is shooting par — not at golf but at fishing; he has caught 72 this spring.

Paul Crosby now knows what an explosion shot is; Elmer Reed laid down a trick ball and when Crosby hit it, it really exploded.

Mac Dews, Jr., missed an eagle on No. 8 by inches.

Mrs. Roger Littleton sank a 50-foot wedge shot on No. 9 for a birdie 3.

Mrs. Wayne Shobe broke 100 for the first time this season when she finished 18 holes in 99. She had seven 1-putt greens. Mrs. Shobe said she would like to play golf barefooted some day just to see what kind of score she could make.

Herb Sollars turned in his best-ever 18-hole round—43 and 41 for a total of 84.

NEW GOLFING members are Harry Townsend, Richard Filbin, Mrs. Clarence Chrisman, Mrs. Howard S. Harper, Everett Wadley, Emerson Phares, Jr., and Fred Demenico.

Coach Herb Russell was the guest of Robert Lyton.

Robert Poe of Dayton was Ralph Douglass' golfing guest. He is a southpaw cross-handed golfer.

Clarence Chrisman was out for the first time this season testing his back after last winter's operation.

Charles Dunton is vacationing in Florida — and probably doing some golfing.

Paul Rodenfels and his son Tom were out for the first time — and Tom was out-doing his dad.

John McLean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill McLean turned in a 67 for his best-of-the-season.

Gene Sollars and his brother Herb were golfing during the week end.

Austin Wise and Bill Barrett played 27 holes in two hours and 45 minutes. They used the electric cart and turned in their best scores of the season.

Ronnie Cornwell shot a 70 (2 under par) for his best 18 holes of the season. He had one bogey and three birdies and the rest pars.

John Petty had a 43 for his best-of-the-season.

John Ellcessor, a southpaw, got his first eagle of the season on No. 4.

GEORGE FITZGERALD had a 36 for his best-ever. That was par all the way and something every golfer seeks to achieve.

Bill Himmelsbach got a 79 on his first 18 holes of the season.

Joe Tillet said his wife is now able to detect some of the faults in his swing.

Mrs. Bill McLean shot a 51 for her best-of-the-season. The pro shot his best-of-the-season — a sub-par 32.

Mrs. Roger Littleton had her best-of-the-season, a 54.

Mrs. Paul Pennington sank a chip shot on No. 8 that helped her card a 62 for one of her best rounds in a long time.

Mrs. Marvin Rossmann had a 54 for her best-of-the-season. She was playing with Mrs. Charles Griffiths who toured the course in 60.

Dan O'Brien, a former WHS star athlete now coaching, shot a 75 while playing here over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buxton are vacationing in Arkansas.

Bill Himmelsbach finally got his wife to go all the way around the course with him—but she rode the electric golf cart.

Hosts for the Men's Night party Thursday are Bud Schuler, Eugene McClain, Lowell Miller, Ed Vollette, Jim Grinstead and Donald Lange.

The next Country Club dance is scheduled for July 28.

Businessmen Beat Good Hope

Chillicothe Team
Wins Easily, 15-2

The Chillicothe Businessmen's southwestern Ohio League nine pummeled Good Hope 15-2 in an SWO contest Sunday.

Although Good Hope held a 1-0 lead at the end of the first, the Businessmen came from behind and dashed the fortunes of the Fayette County team in the top of the second. They were never again in danger.

A big eighth inning gave the Ross County squad 8 runs to push their victory score even higher than it had been.

Good Hope scored its only other run in the bottom of the ninth. Chillicothe won its game on 14 hits and no errors. A triple and a home run lived their contest.

The Good Hope squad picked up seven hits but made four costly errors.

Swaps Gets Rest

After Record Run

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP)—Swaps today begins a two weeks rest, well-earned by his world record performance of 1:33.1 in the Argonaut Mile at Hollywood Park Saturday.

Owner Rex Ellsworth and trainer Mith Tenney plan to give the colt a breather until the $50,000 Inglewood Handicap June 23, at a mile and one-sixteenth.

Swaps now has three world records, the others being 1:40.2 for a mile and one-sixteenth set in the Californian last year, and 1:39.3 for a mile and 70 yards at Gulfstream last April.

First money of $29,750 in the Argonaut boosted total earnings to $511,500 for Swaps, the California-bred Kentucky Derby winner of 1955.

Gophers, Rebels Still Undefeated

OMAHA (AP)—The Minnesota Gophers and the Mississippi Rebels, making their first appearance in National Collegiate Athletic Assn. baseball tournament play, remained the only undefeated teams today.

The Gophers, a pre-tournament favorite because of their power-laden lineup, and Mississippi met tonight in the battle of the unbeaten in third round play.

Minnesota handed Arizona its first defeat, 3-1 last night, while the Rebels' Buddy Wittchen pitched the fifth one hit victory in NCAA baseball tourney history, stopping Bradley, 4-0.

New Hampshire, 6-4 winner over Washington State, plays Arizona and Wyoming University, 8-2 victors over New York University, meets Bradley.

Robin Freeman Chops Fingers In Accident

CINCINNATI (AP)—Robin Freeman, phenomenal Ohio State basketball guard, lost parts of the middle and index fingers on his left hand in a woodchopping accident Sunday.

The slender guard, whose "miracle hands" helped him break a flock of scoring records, underwent surgery at Good Samaritan Hospital after the incident. Hospital aides said he was in "good" condition.

His father, Robin Freeman Sr., said that the two fingers were lost down "about to the second joint" but that his son "will have partial mobility" in the remaining finger section.

The elder Freeman said he did not ask his son details of how the accident happened, but said it came while his son was working in the yard at home here.

"He wanted to clean up the lawn, and of course, he's been inactive since the end of the basketball season. So I said he could," the father related.

"There were some old logs back there that I had been burning and they were kinda hard. He got his Boy Scout hatchet out and was cutting..."

Freeman, 21, and only 5-foot-11-inches tall, cut a wide swath through OSU school and Big Ten scoring marks playing a game where most of his rivals towered over him.

He pumped in an average of 32.5 points per game last season and put in more than 11 field goals per game in the Big Ten.

Willie Mays of the Giants drew 79 walks in 1955. Thirteen were intentional.

NEWS VIEWS

BY RAY BRANDENBURG

After 9 months of struggling to fill the heads of Young American with something besides comic books and TV serials, U. S. schoolteachers are getting the usual summer parole. And if you don't think a teacher needs a rest after riding herd on an average classroom of normal, healthy kids then you've probably never tried to answer the first ten questions any Junior American can dream up.

Not only do teachers have to be able to explain everything from Creation to the H-bomb but they also have to try to keep discipline. So summer is wonderful for teachers but no picnic for mothers. They have to find some way to keep the moppets busy. That's rougher than home-made haircuts. Still, it makes parents appreciate teachers.

Old summer time has finally arrived. Did you ever see so many beautiful flowers? Our back yard is a riot of color. Mother nature can spread beauty in a big way and she does it every spring, in spite of cold spells, rainy days or droughts. Just another indication that a guy upstairs is calling the turns.

Swimming and baseball is in full swing in Washington C. H. Both are fine outlets for youthful energies. Properly supervised as they are, both sports are a wonderful asset to Washington C. H.

Just heard about a minor league ballplayer who dreamed he was chasing a fly ball and dashed out of his second floor bedroom window. Next time he'll dream the batter's only bunting. It's wise to put the brakes on runaway dreams... and it's even wiser to be sure you can put the brakes on your car safely and surely. Stop in this week for a brake check and for a long-lasting brake re-lining if needed. We have the equipment for accurate service. R. Brandenburg Motor Sales, Inc., 524 Clinton Ave. Phone 2575.

Psychiatrist Kills His Wife, Then Himself

CLEVELAND (AP) — A series of family arguments ended Sunday with the fatal shooting of a Cleveland psychiatrist and his estranged wife.

Homicide Detective Peter J. Becker said Dr. John Otis, 44, fired five shots from a small-caliber nine-shot pistol into the chest of his wife, Frieda, 44, then fired three more into his own chest.

Dr. Otis, a psychiatrist at Crile Veterans Hospital, and his wife were seated face to face on a lawn swing in the back yard of their home when the shooting started.

Their bodies were slumped beside the swing when their two children and neighbors, attracted by the shots, rushed to the yard. There were no witnesses to the shooting. The children—John, 11, and Lea, 8—were in the house at the time.

Becker said relatives told him that Dr. Otis and his wife had been estranged for five weeks, following a quarrel over the barking of a dog which Mrs. Otis purchased contrary to her husband's wishes.

Mrs. Otis, a former city hospital nurse, had sued for divorce. Her husband had been living at a motel in Strongsville.

Otis was waiting for his wife when she returned home from church with the two children shortly before noon. The children were sent into the house and the shooting followed, Becker said.

NEWS VIEWS

BY RAY BRANDENBURG

After 9 months of struggling to fill the heads of Young American with something besides comic books and TV serials, U. S. schoolteachers are getting the usual summer parole. And if you don't think a teacher needs a rest after riding herd on an average classroom of normal, healthy kids then you've probably never tried to answer the first ten questions any Junior American can dream up.

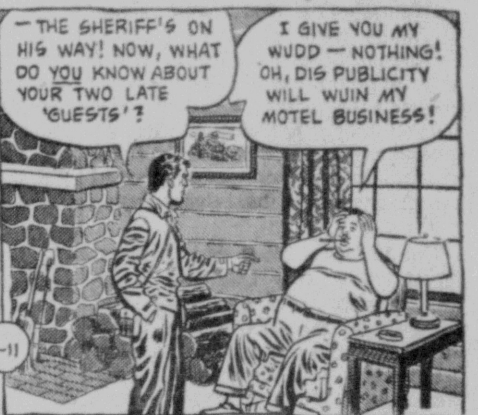

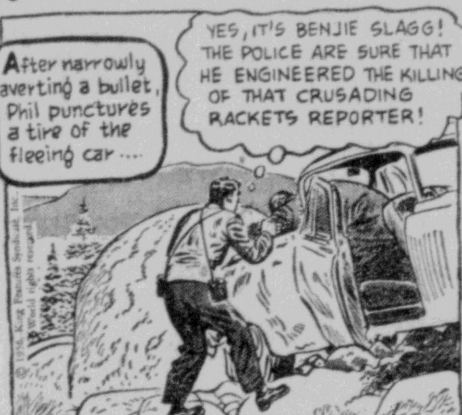

Not only do teachers have to be able to explain everything from Creation to the H-bomb, but they also have to try to keep discipline. So summer is wonderful for teachers. They have to find some way to keep the moppets busy. That's rougher than home-made haircuts. Still, it makes parents appreciate teachers.

Old summer time has finally arrived. Did you ever see so many beautiful flowers? Our back yard is a riot of color. Mother nature can spread beauty in a big way and she does it every spring, in spite of cold spells, rainy days or droughts. Just another indication that a guy upstairs is calling the turns. Swimming and baseball is in full swing in Washington, C. H. Both are fine outlets for youthful energies. Properly supervised as they are, both sports are a wonderful asset to Washington, C. H.

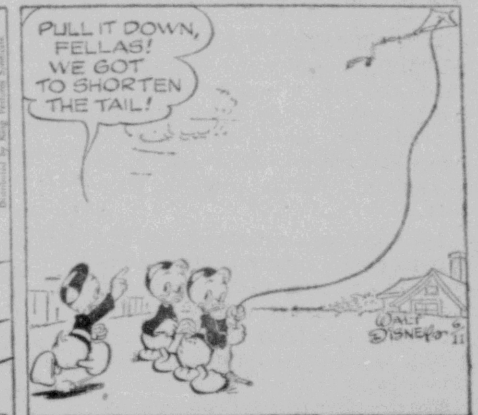

Just heard about a minor league ballplayer who dreamed he was chasing a fly ball and dashed out of his second floor bedroom window. Next time he'll dream the batter's only bunting. It's wise to put the brakes on runaway dreams... and it's even wiser to be sure you can put the brakes on your car safely and surely. Stop in this week for a brake check, and for a long-lasting brake re-lining if needed. We have the equipment for accurate service. R. Brandenburg Motor Sales, Inc., 524 Clinton Ave. Phone 2875.

Commissioners Get Requests For Road Help

Jeffersonville Seeks Street Aid-Apiary
Inspector Appointed

Discussion of road and street problems with committees from Jeffersonville and Jefferson Township, appointment of a new county apiarian inspector together with routine matters, occupied the attention of the Fayette County Commissioners at their regular board meeting today at their Court House office.

The Jefferson Township trustees, H. M. Blue, Guy Coe and Willis Ray, accompanied by Ward and Fred Gray, farmers of that township, asked the commissioners what if any help could be expected from the county if any improvement could be made on a three mile strip of the Edgfield Road.

THE COMMISSIONERS explained that since this is a township road and not a county road the improvement would have to be financed from the township road funds and the decision would have to remain with the township trustees.

After getting an estimate of the cost from the county engineer, the trustees declared that they would not have sufficient money for the project at this time and could not give it any further immediate consideration.

Shortly after this session, a committee of citizens consisting of Oscar Fannin, Frank Tracey and Mrs. Emma Roush of Jeffersonville met with the commissioners with reference to improvement of certain streets in Jeffersonville, a project which had been discussed with officials there some time ago.

THIS COMMITTEE stated that several bad spots in the streets needed immediate attention and if the county engineer's office would give some aid through use of county equipment, and some help from a county highway crew, the town had about $3,000 available to buy material for the work as far as it would go. The commissioners advised that they would give authority to County Engineer Wagner to help with the planning and use of county equipment and workers as far as he could without interfering with the regular program of county work now underway.

County Engineer Charles Wagner made a special report during the commissioners' session Monday that contractors had moved in to push the work of improving the Fayette Street bridge in this city and that rapid progress was being made.

He also reported that the county highway crews had started today on the surface treating improvement of the Barger Road in Green Township. About four miles of this road are being resurfaced between the Morris Road and the Highland County line.

A RESOLUTION was passed by the commissioners naming J. W. Sears of Jefferson Township as the apiary inspector for the county for the remainder of this year at remuneration of $300. This appointment is subject to approval of the state division in charge of apiary inspection.

Dr. Lawrence W. Burris, representing the Junior Chamber of Commerce, asked the commissioners for a contribution to the public Fourth of July celebration expense in the City Park, which is being sponsored by the Junior C of C. The board granted $100 donation from the Eymann Fund for this purpose. Bills were approved by the commissioners including the relief bills placed before them at this time.

AMONG the bills from the relief department were hospital accounts approved by the relief department for needy persons of $2,105 at Memorial Hospital here and $1,149 at University Hospital at Columbus. In addition bills were included for several hundreds of dollars for physicians and surgeons' accounts for county indigent persons investigated and approved during the past several weeks.

Among other bills approved was one for $3,770 from the state for Fayette County's share of maintenance of Agricultural Extension Work in this county for a six months period. A check is legally required to be sent to the state treasurer's office for this amount.

Junior Legion Team Loses Twin Opener

The Washington C. H. Junior Legion team lost both games of a twin opening bill with Springfield Legionnaires on the Bloomingburg diamond Sunday, dropping the first one 11 to 3 and the second 1-0.

Each team got only one hit in the well-played, well-pitched nightcap.

The Legion Juniors will play Ironton at Bloomingburg next Sunday in the first game of the American Legion double-elimination district tournament. The district includes Washington C. H., Ironton, Portsmouth, Chillicothe and Peebles.

The Washington roster includes Osborne, Jordan, Heiman, Grooms, Kimble, Mason, Smith, Mercer, McConaughy, McCoy, Merriman and Anderson. Loring (Shorty) Williams manages the team which is sponsored by the Pennington Bakery.

At the same time, he received his commission as a lieutenant in the Army. However, since it was still uncertain just when he would be called into military service, he planned to enter the practice of his profession.

The report said that 48 telephone calls were made during the month, giving a total of 285 for the year so far, while 139 wires were sent during the year, including 26 during the month of May.
